PRAYER RESOURCE

OPENING PRAYER

Lord God, creator and sustainer of life, be with us today as we study and discuss what it means to share in the ministry of healing. Open our hearts and minds so that we may more truly reflect your compassion and concern for each person we meet. Help us to understand the vital role of the physician and impel us to dedicate ourselves to your service. We pray in your Holy Name. Amen.

OR

O Lord Jesus Christ, comfort of all who suffer, your words and deeds show a special love for persons who are poor and vulnerable. Instill within our hearts the compassion and mercy you showed to those who were poor, hungry, sick and dying. Fill our hearts with zeal to change the unjust structures of our society so that all women, men and children may flourish. All this we ask in your Holy Name. Amen.

READING

For God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. (2 Corinthians 4:6-7)

READING

A leper came to Jesus and, kneeling down, begged him and said, “If you wish, you can make me clean.” Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him and said to him, “I will do it. Be made clean.” The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. Then, warning him sternly, he dismissed him at once. Then he said to him, “See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them.” The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. He remained outside in deserted places, and people kept coming to him from everywhere. (Mark 1:40-45)

OPENING PRAYER

O God, creator and sustainer of all, you call us to participate in your healing ministry and delegate to us a sacred trust, that of meeting you in the person of everyone who comes into our care. Grant us a spirit of respect and integrity, of honesty and truthfulness. Guide us to ask in each situation, “What is for the good of this patient?” Support us in the difficult decisions we make on your behalf. We ask all these things in your Holy Name. Amen.

READING

There was a woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years. She had suffered greatly at the hands of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet she was not helped but only grew worse. She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak. She said, “If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured.” Immediately her flow of blood dried up. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. Jesus, aware at once that power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who has touched my clothes?” But his disciples said to him, “You see how the crowd is pressing upon you, and yet you ask, ‘Who touched me?’” And he looked around to see who had done it. The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth. He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction.” (Mark 5:21-34)

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice!
Let your ears be attentive to my voice in supplication.
If you, O Lord, mark iniquities, Lord, who can stand?
But with you is forgiveness, that you may be revered.
I trust in the Lord; my soul trusts in his word.
My soul waits for the Lord, more than sentinels wait for the dawn.
(Psalm 130)

READING

John summoned two of his disciples and sent them to the Lord to ask, “Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?” When the men came to him, they said, “John the Baptist has sent us to you to ask, ‘Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?’” At that time he cured many of their diseases, sufferings, and evil spirits; he also granted sight to many who were blind. And he said to them in reply, “Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have the good news proclaimed to them.” (Luke 7:18-22)
