2. NOMINATION CRITERIA

This award was created in honor of Sister Mary Concilia Moran, RSM, a groundbreaking visionary whose creativity and leadership advanced the Catholic health ministry.

The person selected shall be:

- A recognized leader in furthering the Catholic health ministry.
- Known for prophetic innovation within the context of Catholic health care ministry sponsorships.
- Able and willing to envision future directions in Catholic health ministry, particularly around sponsorship and governance models.
- Representative of an approach to health care that emphasizes collaboration with bishops and other Church leaders to advance cross-disciplinary initiatives.
- Devoted to an understanding of the health ministry that is rooted in the ecclesial community.
- Sensitive to the needs of the poor and gives witness to this sensitivity through mercy and compassion.
INNOVATION (demonstrated) *
Describe the new concept(s), structure(s) or solution(s) that this visionary leader creatively applied to extend the ministry, particularly around sponsorship and/or governance models. Provide examples of accomplishment and/or outcomes.
Maximum Word Count: 400

IMPACT *
Explain how this candidate’s creative leadership advanced the ministry, as a whole, in new direction(s). Provide specific examples of impact and/or outcomes. (Inspirational stories are encouraged.)
Maximum Word Count: 400

MISSION *
Give example(s) of candidate’s demonstration of the ministry’s core commitments in the following areas:
• Promote and defend human dignity
• Attend to the whole person
• Care for poor and vulnerable persons
• Promote the common good
• Act on behalf of justice
• Steward resources
• Act in communion with the church
Maximum Word Count: 400
