The Elderly – Our Future

“The pandemic has produced a twofold awareness: on the one hand the interdependence of everyone, and on the other greater attention to inequalities. We are all in the same storm, but it is increasingly evident that we are on different boats, and that the least seaworthy boats are sinking every day.”

FROM OLD AGE: OUR FUTURE – THE ELDERLY AFTER PANDEMIC

REGISTRATION COSTS

The entire series is free of charge for CHA members, Catholic Charities USA and Sant'Egidio affiliates as well as all those who work or minister to seniors.

OVERVIEW

Old Age: Our Future – The elderly after pandemic, was released by the Pontifical Academy for Life on Feb. 9. It calls Catholic and fellow faith-based ministries as well as others to partner and innovate to meet the critical needs of the growing population of elders and the impact on them from the pandemic. Register for the series to unpack the document and explore new ways.
