CATHOLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION EXPERIENCE IN MONTGOMERY AND SELMA, ALABAMA

September 30 — October 2, 2026

A transformative three-day journey
to address the issue
of racism & promote truth-telling and healing justice

What is the relationship between the nation's past and modern-day systems of inequity, particularly as related to the criminal legal system?

How is the Church, its leadership, and the Catholic health ministry called to be instruments of reconciliation?

What are the ways in which the Church and the Catholic health ministry can play a more active role in truth-telling and advance meaningful efforts that move our ministries, communities, Church, and country forward?

ON THIS TRIP YOU WILL...

Further your knowledge of the history of the Civil Rights Movement where key events happened, with community members who were present.

Sites of the 1955-1956 Montgomery Bus Boycott

- Dexter Parsonage | Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. led the Dexter Congregation from 1954 to 1960

Sites of the 1965 March from Selma to Montgomery

- Crossing the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma
- The Catholic City of St Jude
- The Viola Liuzzo Memorial
- Meet with a 1965 "Foot Soldier" and life-long Civil Rights Activist

Understand the connection between the history of slavery and racial terror, and the modern-day system of mass incarceration and capital punishment.

- The Legacy Museum: From Enslavement to Mass Incarceration
- The National Memorial for Peace and Justice: A sacred space for truth telling and reflection about lynching and its legacy
- The Freedom Monument Sculpture Park, honoring the lives of the 10 million Black people who were enslaved in America
- Meet with staff from Equal Justice Initiative

Pray and discern how Catholics can play a more active role in truth-telling to move our nation towards justice and healing.

- Encounters with local ministries may include:
Resurrection Catholic Missions of the South and the Edmundite Missions
- Mass, group prayer and meditation times
- In-depth sharing times with fellow parishioners
