

Position Openings

We are pleased to provide information about position openings in ethics at the following organizations:

Director, Ethics
PeaceHealth Southwest Medical Center
Vancouver, Wa.

Acts as a key regional resource and coordinator of the organizational, business and clinical ethics work; assists in the education, communication and deliberation of organizational and clinical ethical issues for all PeaceHealth staff; responsible for providing organizational and clinical ethics support to other regions as required/assigned; oversees the functions of PHSW spiritual care; participates in community activities by serving on boards and through the offering of educational opportunities is also an expectation of this role. For a complete job specification and contact information, please visit: <http://www.swmedicalcenter.org/jobs> and select:

Job Category: Management,
Job Location: PeaceHealth SW Med Ctr
Job Schedule: Regular-Exempt
Click Select

Vice President of Mission, Ethics, & Spirituality
Providence Health Care
Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

A key executive member of the senior leadership team, the vice president articulates, interprets, promotes and advocates ethical and spiritual care organization wide, including the advancement of teaching and research in ethics and spirituality. The position plays a crucial role in providing contextual information and guidance to medical staff, senior leaders, society and board members to assist with key programmatic, strategic and corporate decisions.

For a complete job specification and contact information, please visit:

<http://www.providencehealthcare.org/PHC/Careers/Postings.aspx?ID=90314>