The following articles were published in Health Progress in the past several years. Refer to the annual indexes in each December issue of Health Progress for more complete listings of articles on long-term care, as well as other issues of concern to those who serve the elderly.

Gorshe, Nancy, "An Effective, Efficient Elder Care Program," April 1993, pp. 57-59. Profiles an integrated delivery network that offers a continuum of care for the frail elderly.

Hey, Michelle, "Strategic Planning for Long-Term Care Providers," January-February 1992, pp. 18-21. Details the steps for developing strategic and marketing plans.

Hume, Susan K., "HMOs' Continuum of Care," June 1992, pp. 52-54, 59. Shows how two HMOs and one social HMO target their services to meet the needs of the elderly.

Kondis, Charles L., "Healing and Hope," November 1990, pp. 42-45, 59. Outlines the multisevice rehabilitation program at Mercy Medical, Daphne, AL.

Pember, Carleton H., III, and Fonner, Edwin, Jr., "Prevailing Issues in Long-Term Care," June 1992, pp. 38-42. Summarizes CHA survey findings that CEOs see an urgent need for more adequate funding and better communication among Catholic organizations.

Smith, Marnianne, and Buckwalter, Kathleen C., "Mental Healthcare for Rural Seniors," March 1993, pp. 52-56. Describes an integrated approach to break down barriers to care.
